

Daisy Bell

(Harry Dacre, 1892)

victoriaukelele.club

[G] [D] [D7] [G]

[G] There is a flower with [D] in my heart, [D7] Daisy, [G] Daisy!
[G] Planted one day by a [D] glancing [D7] dart,
[C] planted by [D] Daisy [G] Bell !
[Em] Whether she [B7] loves me or [Em] loves me not,
[D] sometimes it's hard to [G] tell,
[Em] yet I am [B7] longing to [Em] share the lot of beau[A]tiful [A7] Daisy [D] Bell! [D7]

CHORUS:

[G] Daisy, Daisy, [C] give me your answer, [G] do!
[D] I'm half [G] cra..[Em]zy, [A] all for the [A7] love of [D]
you! [D7]
It [D] won't be a stylish [G] marriage,
I can't aff[C]ord a [G] carriage, [D]
but [G] you'll look [D] sweet [G] upon the [D] seat of a [G] bicycle [D] made for [G] two.

[G] We will go 'tandem' as [D] man and wife, [D7] Daisy, [G]
Daisy!
[G] Peddling' away down the [D] road of [D7] life,
[C] I and my [D] Daisy [G] Bell !
[Em] When the road's [B7] dark, we can [Em] both despise
[D] p'licemen and 'lamps' as [G] well,
[Em] there are 'bright [B7] lights' in the [Em] dazzling eyes
of beau[A]tiful [A7] Daisy [D] Bell! [D7]

CHORUS

A 	A7
B7 	C
D 	D7
Em 	G

victoriaukelele.club

[G] I will stand by you in [D] 'wheel' or woe, [D7] Daisy, [G] Daisy!

[G] You'll be the bell(e) which I'll [D] ring, you [D7] know!

[C] Sweet little [D] Daisy [G] Bell!

[Em] You'll take the [B7] lead in each

[Em] trip we take, [D] then if I don't do [G] well,

[Em] I will per[B7]mit you to [Em] use the brake,
my beau[A]tiful [A7] Daisy [D] Bell! [D7]

CHORUS

[ROLLING [G] while the leader explains "and here is the young lady's response"]

[G] Henry, Henry [C] here is your answer [G] true.

[D] I'll not [G] cy[Em]cle [A] over the [A7] world with [D] you.
[D7]

If [D] you can't afford a [G] carriage,

There won't [C] be any [G] marriage. [D]

'Cause [G] I'll be [D] damned, if [G] I'll be [D] crammed

On a [G] bicycle [D] made for [G] two!

YouTube: Gerald Adams

A	A7
B7	C
D	D7
Em	G