

One Foot In The Grave

Eric Idle

Intro: [C] [C#dim] [G] [E7] [A7] [D7] [G]

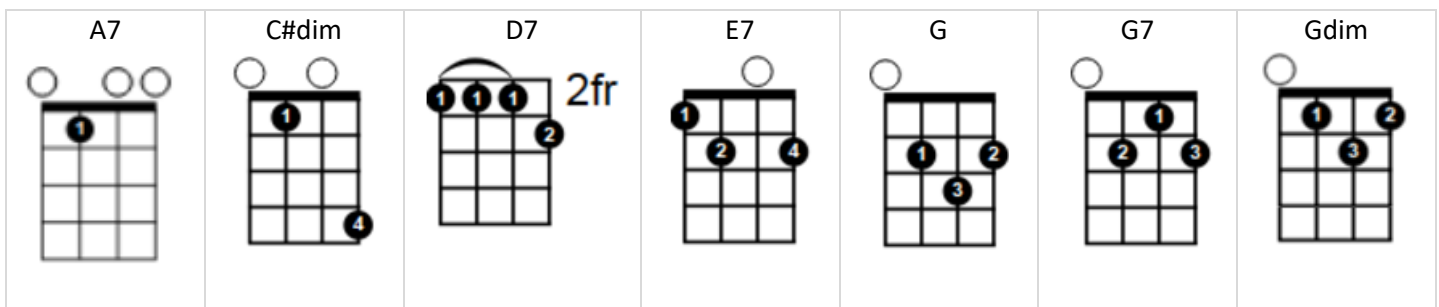

They say I [G] might as well face the truth;
That I am just too long in the tooth.
I've [D7] started to deteriorate,
And now I've [G] passed my own sell-by date.
Oh, I am [G] no spring chicken it's true.
I have to pop my teeth in to chew.
And my old [D7]knees have started to knock.
I've just got [G] too many miles on the clock.

So I'm a [C] wrinkly, [C#dim] crinkly, [G] set in my [G7] ways.
It's [C] true that my [C#dim] body has [G] seen better [G7] days.
But [C]give me half a [C#dim] chance and I can [G]still misbe-[E7]have.
[A7] One [D7] Foot in the [G] grave,[E7]
[A7] One [D7] Foot in the [G] grave.

They say I [G] might as well face the truth;
That I am just too long in the tooth.
So I'm an [D7] OAP and weak-kneed,
But I have [G] not yet quite gone to seed.

So I'm [C] losing [C#dim] my hair and my [G] spine's a bit [G7]
kinked

I may [C] be rare [C#dim] but I'm [G] not yet [G] extinct.

[C] I'm a oldy [C#dim] mouldy, [G] too old to [E7]rave.

[A7] One [D7] foot in the [G] grave,[E7]

[A7] One [D7] foot in the [G] grave.

They tell me [G] I am well past my prime

The Landlord in the sky's calling time

But there's [D7] one thing that He ought to know

I am not yet [G] ready to go

I know I'm [G] old but I'm not a freak

I should be cherished like an antique

But every [D7] time that I have a slight cough

I'm frightened [G] they'll start switching me off

I may be [C] over the [C#dim] hill, now that [G] I have re-[G7]tired.

[C]Fading aw-[C#dim]ay, but I've [G]not yet ex-[G7]pired.

[C]Clapped out, [C#dim] run down, [G] too old to [E7] save;

[A7] One [D7] Foot in the [G] grave,[E7]

[A7] One [D7] Foot in the [G] grave.

[G] So I'm a [C] wrinkly, [C#dim] crinkly [G] but don't shed a [G7] tear

[C] I'm not [C#dim] exactly [G] a little old [G7] dear

[C] One thing's for sure, [C#dim] I'm still [G] bloody well[E7] here

[A7] One [D7] Foot in the [G] grave,[E7]

[A7] One [D7] Foot in the [G] grave,[E7]

[A7] One [D7] Foot in the [G] grave.[Gdim][G]
