The Incredible String Band

Intro: C /, C /,

[G] I'm not the [F] kind to complain that I
[G] never had a [F] girl to [C] love
[G] Many fine girls I [F] tried hard to know but I [G] think I never [F] tried e[C]nough
[G] Sitting one [F] day by myself and I'm thinking, " what [F] could be [C] wrong?"
When this [G] funny little [F] Hedgehog comes [G] running up to [F] me
And it [G] starts up to [F] sing me this [C] song

CHORUS:

Oh you [G] know all the words, and you [F] sung all the notes,
But you [G] never quite [F] learned the [C] song she sang [G] I can tell by the [F] sadness in your eyes,
That you [G] never quite [F] learned the [C] song.

[Instrumental Bridge]

[G] Every day when [F] the sun go down,
[G] and the evening [F] is so very [C] still,
[G] Many a fine girl I've [F] held in my arms, and I [G] hope there's many more [F] that I [C] will.
[G] But just when every[F]thing is going fine,
and absolutely [F] nothing is [C] wrong
This [G] funny little [F] hedgehog's [G] always ar[F]round
And every [G] time he wants to [F] sing me this [C] song

[G] thought I might settle [C] down
[G] Found myself a [F] pretty little girl and I [G] stopped all my [F] running [C] around [G] But just when the [F] preacher come along, and he's just [F] gonna pop on the [C] ring
This [G] funny little [F] hedgehog's [G] running down the [F] aisle
And I [G] have to [F] tell what he did [C] sing.
